Valentine wines under $20

Commentary by Elizabeth Morse

"Love is like wine. To sip is fine, but to empty the bottle is a headache" – Julio Iglesias

WINEderlust

Looking for a special Valentine bottle? Show your love some love with one of these great options that won't break the bank. I've got three pretties to share: a white, a red and a sparkler. Just because it's good doesn't mean it has to be expensive. Cheers!

The white is 2014 Hugel Gentil, an Edelzwicker (blend) from Alsace, France. It's heavy on the Gewurztraminer with smaller amounts of Riesling, Pinot Gris and Muscat. A full-bodied and refreshing wine with a beautiful, perfumey nose. In the glass are crisp fruit flavors with a lean, lemony finish. A great choice with fish and shellfish. This wine is an old favorite of mine that is consistent from year to year. Dry and $15.

2015 Charles Smith Wines "Velvet Devil"

Merlot, $14, is from Washington. A dense red wine that begs for beef dishes or dark chocolate dessert. Expect a mouthful of dark cherries and blackberries, big cedar and sweet tobacco. Velvet Devil offers big flavor in a luxurious, velvety smooth finish. This one goes down fast and easy.

This unique sparkler is bone dry and dark red with pretty pink foam. Midici Ermete I Quercioli "Secco" is a Lambrusco from the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy and will set you back about $15. This works beautifully with cheesy pasta dishes like ravioli and also is a successful choice with clams, mussels and oysters.

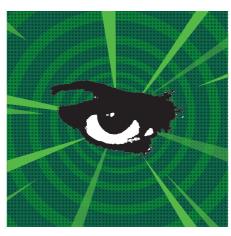

Elizabeth Morse owned the Corner Wine Bar in Broad Ripple for close to 20 years. She is a graduate of IU, is a Hoosier chef, food writer, wine guru and Hamilton County Master Gardener. Morse has been a resident of Hamilton County for more than a decade. Check out her blog: schlepicurean.com.

Virtual reality business comes to Noblesville

Bv Sadie Hunter sadie@yoaurecurrent.com

A new virtual reality business has opened NOW OPEN at Hamilton Town Center, a first for Hamilton County. Derezzed VR was launched last month by 24-year-old Colin Snyder, who said he first became interested in the business of virtual reality during his time at Ball State University.

"I was following the development of the Oculus, one of the first VR headsets," Snyder said. "I had the idea back (in 2013) that it might be a worthwhile investment to put some of these pieces of technology together and provide a place and a platform for people to be able to use it because it's not really affordable as an at-home service.

"At the time, the tech really wasn't in a position to bring it all together and make it feasible, so after I got my graduate degree, I went back and revisited the idea and went forward from there."

Snyder opened the 1,300-square-foot facility at 13904 Town Center Blvd., Suite 600,

near Englin's Shoe Rack and Claire's. The space is home to seven VR bays.

A Fishers native, Snyder returned to the area after college.

Derezzed VR offers a membership program for frequent visitors, but regular prices are based on time slots - $15 for 15 minutes, $25 for 30 minutes and $40 for an hour.

Grapevine Cottage reaching 20 years

By Heather Lusk news@currentzionsville.com

Doug Pendleton didn't initially plan to open

ACCOMPLISHMENT

a wine shop in Zionsville.

"It actually kind of chose me," said Pendleton, who ows Grapevine Cottage. The businesses is celebrating 20 years of operation this summer.

"I was just a frustrated wine consumer," Pendleton said. "I put together the store I'd like to shop in."

During his search for a location, he discovered a bankrupt gourmet food business on Main Street. He purchased the shop and its liquor license and opened Grapevine Cottage

Even with decades of retail experience, Pendleton didn't expect the business would last 20 years, or that he would add a second location in Fishers in 2011.

"I've kind of created a monster." he said. laughing. "Part of our secret is the right people, people on the sales floor who actually know something about wine."

Most of his staff is retired, with the exception of Mat McGraw, his general manager and business partner whom he expects will take over the business when he retires.

Within a few months of opening in 1999, Pendleton started a digital newsletter.

"It was right at the dawn of email marketing," he said. "People weren't getting 800 pieces of junk in their mailbox. They would actually read things."

With roughly 7,000 recipients, Pendleton will publish the 1,000th issue in May.

One of his biggest challenges is finding young customers amidst the popularity of bourbon and craft beers, but he expects the trend will return to wine.

Pendleton is known as "the wine guy" to his customers, a moniker he first earned in California. He enjoys helping customers and having the chance to sample wines, which often requires filtering through the good and bad.

Blueprint for Improvement: White-hot kitchen remodel in Indianapolis

Commentary by Larry Greene

Background: Built in 1985, this home is near Eagle Creek Reservoir. The homeowners were looking to modernize their space and streamline their lives.

THE CHALLENGE

The homeowners worked with our designers to create a space that felt bigger without knocking down any walls. They also wanted more functional storage space.

LEGAL NOTICE

On January 31, 2019, Duke Energy Indiana, LLC filed a Verified Petition with the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission in Cause No. 45193 requesting the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission to decline its jurisdiction over, or otherwise approve an alternative regulatory plan for the offering of a Prepaid Advantage Pilot Program applicable to residential customers pursuant to Indiana Code §§ 8-1-2.5-5 and 8-1-2.5-6.

> Duke Energy Indiana, LLC By: Stan Pinegar, President

THE SOLUTION

Our team transformed this ho-hum kitchen into a true centerpiece of the home.

- 1. The homeowners chose a gorgeous gray for the lower cabinets and white for the upper cabinets.
- 2. Bulkheads over the cabinets were removed and replaced with taller cabinetry that not only provides more storage. but makes the room seem taller.
- 3. A quartz countertop was installed, and the tile backsplash was taken all the way to the ceiling to give the illusion of a taller ceiling.
- 4. Instead of two smaller pantries, the design gave the homeowners one larger, more functional pantry space and a new counter for meal prep.

Punchbowl Social

The Cook's Salad from Punchbowl Social in downtown Indianapolis is a fresh, unique combination of many vibrant ingredients. (Photo by Anna Skinner)

Commentary by Anna Skinner

Address: 120 S. Meridian St., Indianapolis What to get: Cook's Salad

Price: $14

Anna's take: Punchbowl Social offers more than just extraordinary food and drinks. It features an arcade, a bowling alley, karaoke, games like giant Scrabble and giant Jenga, the famous red cursive "I love you so much" wall and more.

Before I even ordered, I was brought a complimentary basket of the most delicious little biscuits and jam. For an appetizer, I started with the Lil' Fried Bologna and Cheese Sandwiches ($8). I grew up in the country, so taking a bite out of these bologna, tomato, olive tapenade and gruyere sandwiches was like a slightly fancier memory of eating my mother's fried bologna for breakfast.

For my main dish, I ordered the Cook's Salad, a giant bowl of little gem lettuce, bacon, crispy chicken, tomatoes, pickled green beans, creamy avocado, hard-boiled eggs, gruyere cheese, Dixie Caviar (which is actually just a fancy way of saying blackeyed peas) and a shallot-thyme vinaigrette dressing. The salad was fresh, filling and had a unique twist with the combination of ingredients.

Suggested pairings: Punchbowl Social has several punch bowls, and if they're in the restaurant's name, you know they have to be good. There are three main offerings – The Watermelon Polo Bowl, It's a Mer-Man's World and The King's Cup, all $9. A featured punch, which the bartender will educate you on if you visit, is $8. All contain alcohol and are delicious. For more, visit punchbowlsocial.com.

PRACTICE DEMOCRACY. READ YOUR LEGAL NOTICES.

The reason publication of legal notices is required in newspapers is YOU, the citizen. In a democracy, the government is required to inform you of the public business, because you and your neighbors are the basis of government. These notices provide essential information about all local government entities including schools, cities, villages and counties.

A democracy is a system of checks and balances. Your right to be informed is a check on government. Public notices shed light on the actions of all government bodies--but it's up to you, the citizen, to read them and obtain more information on the actions that have an impact on you.
