You are hereby notified that on this date the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission (“Commission”) has caused the following entry to be made:

In accordance with the Commission's May 27, 2020 Order (at 5), the Joint Utility Petitioners and any jurisdictional Indiana utility intending to participate in this proceeding and seek rate relief is to provide certain information in monthly reports due on the 27th of the month. Future monthly reports of the information, the next of which is due on July 27, 2020, shall be provided in a table format using excel spreadsheets. In addition, please include the following information in the utility's July 27, 2020 monthly report:

1. If the disconnection moratorium were to end on August 14, 2020, the anticipated number of disconnections that will occur and the associated dollar amount to these disconnections.
2. A brief description of the utility's collection process, including timeframes for specific actions, such as sending accounts to collections and designating accounts as uncollectible, and how the collection process intersects with payment arrangements and disconnections.
3. An explanation for all expected and/or unexpected trends reflected in the data that the utility believes are directly or indirectly related to the COVID-19 pandemic and impacting, or may impact, utility operations.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
