Counsel for LTD Broadband, LLC

¹ Individual states have varying definitions of "communications services" and various requirements for obtaining authorization to provide communications services. The list provided herein reflects states where LTD either: 1) received the required authorization to provide communications services similar to Indiana's CSP process; or 2) received authority to provide communications services by virtue of receiving designation as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier where separate authorization to provide communication services is not required. LTD also provides services in Kansas and Nebraska, which do not require CLEC/CSP authorization. LTD currently has applications pending for ETC designation in California, Iowa (expansion), Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and North Dakota.
